Today, counsel for the plaintiff stated that he needs one more opportunity to file appropriate application for amendment of plaint U/O 6 R.17 CPC. Onkar Singh

Plaintiff

Versus

Surinder Singh & Others

Defendants

THROUGH CISCO WEBEX VIDEO CONFERENCING

Date:19/08/2020

Present:- Sh. Sumit Gaba, counsel for plaintiff.

1. The plaintiff has filed the present suit against his brothers seeking injunction restraining the defendants from dispossessing the plaintiff from the property bearing Shop No.4, C-34, Sharda Puri, New Delhi. The plaintiff has also filed an interim injunction application praying for injunction restraining the defendants from dispossessing the plaintiff from the aforesaid suit property till the disposal of the suit. Plaintiff has also relied upon the Aadhaar Card which shows the address of the plaintiff of the suit property and various complaints and also a legal notice issued by TPDDA dt.14/10/2015 to the plaintiff showing that the plaintiff had electricity connection at the suit property in his name. Ld. Counsel for the plaintiff has also argued that the defendants in their complaint to the police have admitted that plaintiff is in possession of the suit shop.

2. Summons in the suit and notice of the interim application were issued upon the defendants whereby it was stated that the defendant Surinder Singh was informed on his mobile number on 16/07/2020. However, defendants did not join the proceedings. Counsel for the plaintiff had also filed an affidavit of service electronically on 13/07/2020 stating that the defendants have been served through speed post. Copies of the delivery report attached with the affidavit shows that the summons have been served upon the defendants on 10/07/2020. However, defendants did not appear in the present case on any date of hearing. They have also not filed any written statement so far.

3. From the perusal of the documents it prima faice appears that plaintiff is in possession of the suit property and, therefore, it is in the interest of justice that the defendants be restrained from dispossessing the plaintiff from the aforesaid suit property without following the due process of law, till the next date of hearing.

Put up for further proceedings on 26/10/2020.

Heard on consideration.

1. The plaintiff i.e. the seller of the suit property bearing House No.5, Friends Enclave, Rajendra Park, Nanngloi, Delhi – 110041 has filed the present suit against the buyer seeking injunction that the defendants be restrained from dispossessing the plaintiff from the suit property. It is the case of the plaintiff that he agreed to sell the suit property to the defendant no.2 for a total sale consideration of Rs.1,55,00,000/- and agreement to sell dt.31/10/2018 was executed between the parties. It is also stated that defendant no.2 paid Rs.15Lakhs as an earnest money to the plaintiff. It is stated that thereafter, a sale deed dt.23/01/2019 was executed between the parties and the defendants have made a total payment of Rs.60,00,000/- to the plaintiff. The suit has been filed as the plaintiff states that the balance consideration as mentioned in the agreement to sell dt.31/10/2018 has not been paid by the defendants to the plaintiffs. It is alleged that the defendants are threatening the plaintiff to dispossess them from the suit property and in these circumstances the plaintiff has lodged the complaint dt.12/06/2020 with the SHO P.S. Nangloi.

2. It is surprising to note that the sale deed states that the total consideration for the suit property is Rs.49,90,000/- and the plaintiff has admittedly already received Rs.60,00,000/- from the defendants. Admittedly, the sale deed has been duly registered and the sale deed also records in Clause (3) that the actual vacant and physical possession of the suit property has been handed over to the defendants. The sale deed further records that the entire consideration amount has been paid to the plaintiff in Clause (1). In these circumstances, as the plaintiff has already received the amount more than what is stated in the sale deed, it is surprising that the plaintiff still says that he has not received the sale amount. Even otherwise, as on date, the defendants are registered owners of the suit property as admitted by the plaintiff herself. The agreement to sell, upon which the plaintiff has relied is unregistered and does not bear appropriate stamp duty as required by law.

In these circumstances, put up for arguments on maintainability on 08/09/2020.
