IA No.01/2019

This is an application dated 07.08.2019 moved on behalf of accused Pappu Kamat u/s 439 Cr.PC for grant of bail.

Reply dated 02.06.2020 to the bail application has already been filed.

Heard and perused the reply & records.

In support of the bail application, it is submitted by the Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused that the prosecutrix is major as per the ossification test report and as per her statement recorded u/s 164 Cr.PC, she was roaming around with the accused and that is why she was a consenting party and that the accused is having four children and he is in custody since 17.05.2019 and due to outbreak of Covid-19 pandemic, the prosecutrix could not be examined for quite a long time. Thus, it is prayed that the accused may be released on bail.

The prosecutrix is enquired into. She has vehemently opposed the bail informing that a wrong act has been committed with her and she was picked up from the area where she has gone to throw garbage. She has denied any prior acquaintance with the accused.

FIR No.250/19, P.S. Tilak Nagar
U/s 376/342/506 IPC & 6 POCSO Act

State Vs. Pappu Kamat

01.07.2020

Ld. Addl. PP has opposed the bail application stating that the offences are serious in nature and the prosecutrix is yet to be examined. Also that the statements u/s 161 Cr.PC and 164 Cr.PC have to be taken to same pedestal. Thus, it is submitted that granting bail to the accused will hamper the trial as the chances of tempering of evidence and hampering of the trial cannot be ruled out.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the nature of offences as alleged, the manner in which the offence has been committed and that the prosecutrix is yet to be examined, finding no merits in the case for grant of bail to the accused, at this stage, the bail application stands dismissed.
