Sagar @ Hemant Vs. State

04.07.2020

Matter taken up through Video Conferencing.

Present: Sh. Virender Singh, Ld. Addl. PP for State. (Through V/C).
Sh. Shailesh Malik, Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused
Sagar @ Hemant, Enrl. No. D-1868/12. (Through V/C).

1. This is the second anticipatory bail application u/s 438 Cr. PC on behalf of the applicant/accused Sagar. Reply filed by the IO.
2. It is stated in the application as well as submitted by counsel for applicant that the first anticipatory bail application of the applicant was dismissed by Ld. ASJ vide order dated 20.05.2020. He further submits that the applicant filed the first ^{anticipatory} bail application prior to lockdown. Vide order dated 11.02.2020, passed by Sh. Satish Kumar, Ld. ASJ, interim protection was granted to the applicant that IO would not take any coercive action against the applicant. The interim protection of the applicant was continued till 20.05.2020. However, on 20.05.2020, none could appear on behalf of the applicant in the court due to prevailing situation of lockdown, therefore, the first anticipatory bail application of the applicant was dismissed by Ld. ASJ on the said date i.e. 20.05.2020.

3. Ld. Counsel further submits that in "Court on its own motion Vs. State & Ors", W. P. (C) 3037/2020, the Hon'ble Delhi High Court has extended the interim protection to the accused persons granted prior to 16.03.2020. In view of the said judgment, the interim protection of the applicant is required to be continued till 15.07.2020.

4. I have gone through the record and found the submissions of applicant's counsel to be correct. I have also gone through the above referred judgment passed by Hon'ble Delhi High Court.

5. In the aforesaid judgment relied upon by applicant's counsel, the Hon'ble High Court has taken care of the fact that due to lockdown the counsels will not be in position to appear in the court, therefore, the interim protection granted to the accused persons prior to 16.03.2020, was ordered to be automatically extended till 15.07.2020. In view of the directions passed by Hon'ble High Court, the interim protection granted to the applicant vide order dated 11.02.2020, passed by Ld. ASJ is extended till next date.

Put up on 17.07.2020.
