FIR No. : 474/19
PS :Ambedkar Nagar
State vs.Naresh Pal Singh
U/s 363/367/377 IPC & 4/6 POCSO

27.05.2020

Present: Sh. Anil Kumar, Ld. Addl. P. P. for the State.
Sh.Vaibhav Shukla, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/ accused.

Extension is sought on the ground that on account of some error in recording of address of the applicant/ accused, the applicant/ accused could not be released till 18.05.2020, and as such the surgery of his wife which was originally scheduled for 18.05.2020, has now been rescheduled for 06.06.2020.

I have heard the Learned counsel for the applicant/ accused as well as Leanred APP for the State.

Learned counsel for the applicant/ accused has sought 90 days extension on the ground that fibroid is to be removed and follow up care is also necessary.

Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, objects on the ground that surgery is not such, which would require either hospitalization or post operative care for long time.

Leanred counsel for the applicant/ accused states that in view of the circumstances, it is desirable that an extension of 45 days is given from today.

Considering the submissions made by learned counsel for the applicant/ accused and the Learned APP for the State, the extension of 30 days from today is allowed.

The applicant would be at liberty to approach the Court with reliable medical documents, incase such further extension is necessitated.

The application stands disposed off.

Copy of this order be sent to the Jail Superintendent for intimation and be also uploaded on the Web Site of District Court. A copy of this order be further supplied to Ld. Counsel for the accused through e-mail.

Janak Lali vs. State
U/s 323/363/376 IPC

27.05.2020

Present: Sh. Anil Kumar, Ld. Addl. P. P. for the State.
Sh.Keshav Kumar, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/ accused.

Heard.

Order disposes off an appeal filed by the appellant/ accused Janak Lali.

The appeal has assailed the order dated 21.05.2020 of the Learned MM wherein Learned MM, on account of expiry of 15 days, had declined to accept the surety bond, submitted before him, in line with order dated 04.05.2020 of Learned ACJ (South).

It is not disputed that the appellant was admitted to interim bail for a period of 15 days vide order dated 04.05.2020. Further, it is submitted by Learned counsel for the appellant that the grounds of delay were either the surety bond could not be verified or the surety could not appear before the Learned MM for verification and vide order dated 21.05.2020, Learned MM had decline to accept the surety bond on account of lapse of 15 days.

Learned APP for the State agrees that the delay is technical and even could entirely be attributed to the appellant/ accused.

In view of the above, the appeal is allowed. Let appellant/ accused be released on bail on furnishing of personal bond in the sum of Rs.25,000/-, to the satisfaction of the Duty Metropolitan Magistrate/ Jail Superintendent, subject to the condition that he shall not threaten, intimidate or influence the witnesses in any manner and shall not leave the territory of India without seeking prior permission of this Court.

The accused shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent on the immediate next day after expiry of bail period.

Appeal stands disposed off.

Copy of this order be sent to the Jail Superintendent for intimation and be also uploaded on the Web Site of District Court. A copy of this order be further supplied to Ld. Counsel for the accused through e-mail.

The bail is sought including on the ground that two of the co-accused have already been granted regular bail and further that the accused has to look after his sick wife and sick child. Learned counsel for the accused has also relied on certain medical documents annexed with the bail application.

Learned APP for the State, on the other hand, objects on the ground that the offence is heinous one and there is no report of the IO as to whether the other co-accused have been admitted to regular bail or interim bail and further that considering the age of the accused there is no ground for the applicant to claim any threat on account of Covid-19 pandemic.

In so far as the medical documents are concerned, the same have not been verified. Nor there is report qua the status of trial.

Chargesheet is stated to be already filed and Learned counsel for the applicant/ accused submits that in view of the guidelines issued by the Hon'ble High Court in view of the Covid-19 Pandemic, the applicant/ accused is entitled to interim bail. He further submits that the accused is suffering from Varicocele and needs medical attention and since trial is about to be concluded, there is no chance of him influencing the witnesses.

Learned APP for the State objects the bail application on the ground that the offences are heinous and there is no threat of the accused being infected by the Covid-19.

Considering the COVID-109 Pandemic, the directions of the Hon'ble High Court regarding decongestion of jails for ensuring social distancing as well as keeping in view of the medical condition of the accused, the accused/ applicant is admitted to interim
