State Vs. Arvind Kumar
U/s 381 of IPC
PS: NIhal Vihar
21.10.2020

(PROCEEDINGS CONDUCTED THROUGH CISCO WEBEX MEETING

URL <https://delhidistricts.webex.com/join/mm03west>)

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

Sh. Durgesh Rao, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Arguments heard on the bail application moved on behalf of the applicant/accused. It is stated that the accused is falsely implicated in the present case. On the intervening night of 20.02.2018 & 21.02.2018, the accused Arvind Kumar being employee of the complainant was sent to bring some food items from Hari Nagar. On his failure to bring the food items, the accused was beaten mercilessly subsequently. Therefore, the accused has left for his village.

Bail application is opposed by Ld. APP for the State.

As per the reply to the bail application, it appears that IO has not collected any evidence regarding source of cash amount of Rs. 2 lakhs alleged to have been stolen by the accused/ applicant from the Banquet Hall of the complainant. No PC remand in this regard has been obtained by the IO. The accused is not previously involved in any other criminal case. Under these circumstances, no useful purpose will be served by keeping the accused in JC. Accordingly, the accused Arvind Kumar is hereby released on bail on his furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs. 25,000/- and one surety of the like amount.

E-Copy of this order be supplied to Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

Sh. Shivam Prashar, Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Arguments heard on the bail application moved on behalf of the applicant/accused. It is stated that the accused is falsely implicated in the present case. The complainant has already failed to identify the applicant/accused during TIP Proceedings.

Bail application is opposed by Ld. APP for the State.

There is an allegation against the accused/applicant that he along with one co-accused had snatched the mobile phone of lady pedestrian complainant while riding on the bike bearing registration no. DL-8CHS-9435, which was seen in the CCTV footage near the place of incident. The said bike was recovered from the possession of the applicant/accused. The accused was already involved in more than 7 other similar criminal cases. The allegations are serious in nature. No ground is made out for grant of bail at this stage. Accordingly, the present bail application stands dismissed.

E-Copy of this order be supplied to Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

Sh. Manoj Khatri , Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

Arguments heard on the bail application moved on behalf of the applicant/accused. It is stated that the accused is falsely implicated in the present case. The applicant is the brother-in-law of the complainant. The allegations against the accused are made for the bailable offences only.

Bail application is not opposed by Ld. APP for the State.

As per the reply to the bailable application, the allegations levelled against the accused are for the offence punishable under Section U/s 323/509/34 of IPC, which are bailable offences & allegations u/s 4/5/6 of Muslim Women (Protection of Right on Marriage) Act 2019 were made against the accused Naeem Salmani only and not against the applicant. Under these circumstances, no useful purpose will be served by keeping the accused in JC. Accordingly, the accused Nafees Salmani is hereby released on bail on his furnishing personal bond in the sum of Rs. 10,000/- and one surety of the like amount.

E-Copy of this order be supplied to Ld. Counsel for the applicant/accused.

This is an application for releasing the mobile phone on Superdari.

Present:- Ld. APP for the State.
Ld. Counsel for the applicant.
IO has filed his reply. Taken on record.

Instead of releasing the vehicle on superdari, I am of the considered view that the vehicle has to be released as per directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court in case titled as Sunder Bhai Ambalal Desai Vs. State of Gujrat, AIR 2003 SC 638 wherein it has been held that Vehicles involved in an offence may be released to the rightful owner after preparing detailed panchnama; taking photographs of the vehicle, valuation report, and a security bond.

69. The photographs of the vehicle should be attested countersigned by the complainant, accused as well as by the person to whom the custody is handed over.

70. The production of the vehicle should not be insisted upon during the trial. The panchnama and photographs along with the valuation report should suffice for the purposes of evidence.

71. Return of vehicles and permission for sale thereof should be the general norm rather than the exception.

72. If the vehicle is insured, the court shall issue notice to the owner and the insurance company for disposal of the vehicle. If there is no response or the owner declines to take the vehicle or informs that it has claimed insurance/released its right in the vehicle to the insurance company and the insurance company fails to take possession of the vehicle, the vehicle may be ordered to be sold in auction.

73. If a vehicle is reply not claimed by the accused, owner, or the insurance company or by a third person, it may be ordered to be sold by auction."

The view of the Hon'ble Supreme Court has been reiterated by Hon'ble Delhi High Court in case titled as Manjit Singh Vs. State in CrI. M.C. No. 4485/2013 dated 10.09.2014.

Considering the facts and circumstances and law laid down by higher courts, mobile phone in question be released to the owner as per the invoice, after due identity and IMEI number verification on furnishing security bond as per valuation report of the vehicle. After preparation of panchnama of the vehicle and furnishing of security bond as per directions of Hon'ble Supreme Court, the mobile phone shall be released by the IO.

Copy of this order be given Dasti to applicant.

Panchnama and valuation report shall be filed in the court within one month.
