hand, Ld Counsel for Plaintiff submits that Plaintiff is without electricity at the aforementioned shop since 20-08-2020 and his electricity connection may be restored, and that Plaintiff is ready and willing to subject himself to just and reasonable condition imposed by this Court.

4. Ld Counsel for the Plaintiff further submits that Plaintiff had filed a suit seeking the relief of permanent injunction and the said suit was decreed by the court of Ld. Civil Judge Delhi vide its order dated 29.05.2014. However, the Plaintiff withdrew the said suit before the Appellate Court, due to lack of pecuniary jurisdiction, on 30-09-2019 with liberty to file a fresh Suit, and, thereafter, he filed the present suit for permanent injunction alongwith the present application. Moreover, the defendants have also not filed any suit/ counter claim for recovery of the amount of electricity bill as yet. The fact whether there was dishonest abstraction of electricity and a bill as raised by defendant is correct or not would require a trial. At this stage the Plaintiff has established a prima facie case in his favour and balance of convenience also lies in his favour. It is also observed that if the order is not passed in favour of the Plaintiff, he is going to suffer irreparable loss and injury.

It is further prayed that defendants may be directed to reinstall the electricity connection which has been disconnected without giving any notice to the Plaintiff and without following due process of law.

2. I have heard Ld counsels for parties and perused the case file.
3. Ld Counsel for Defendant submits that he has not filed any written reply to the application. However, the Ld Counsel for the defendant has made his submissions on the application and has relied upon the judgement reported in *W.B.S.E.B. Vs. FAKIR CHAND RICE MILLS & ORS. ORDER

1. Plaintiff has filed the present suit for permanent injunction stating that the Plaintiff is the registered consumer of electricity connection bearing K. No. 33400162628 installed at shop at Plot No. 55-56, South Patel Nagar, New Delhi. Plaintiff has also filed an application under order 39 Rules 1 & 2 CPC r/w section 151 CPC for seeking ex-parte ad interim injunction in his favour. In the application the Plaintiff has reiterated the facts as mentioned by him in his Plaint and has prayed that an ad-interim ex-parte injunction in

5. Electricity is an essential amenity for a person living/working in metropolitan city like Delhi and without electricity Plaintiff would be highly inconvenienced and would be subject to great hardship.

6. Admittedly, the impugned bill pertains to the year 2007 and the facts of the present case are different from the facts mentioned in the judgment filed by the defendant. The present case is at the stage of trial. However, in the judgment filed by the defendant, it was at the appellate stage pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India. Considering the judgment "Umesh Chand Sharma Vs. BSES Rajdhani Power Ltd." of Hon'ble Delhi High Court, and considering the totality of facts and circumstances of this case, it is directed to the defendants to restore the electricity connection of the shop at Plot No. 55-56, South Patel Nagar, New Delhi within three days from today subject to payment of Rs. One Lac by the Plaintiff to the defendant. The Plaintiff shall make payment of Rs. 50,000/- to the defendant by tomorrow i.e. 24-09-2020 and shall further make the payment of Rs. 50,000/- to the Defendant on or before the next date of hearing. Let him do accordingly and file the receipts of payment made by him in favour of the defendant on judicial record for perusal of the court on the next date of hearing. Plaintiff is also directed to cooperate with the defendant for the procedural and commercial formalities.

7. With the above captioned directions, the application under Order 39 rule 1 and 2 CPC stands allowed subject to procedural and commercial formalities to be fulfilled by the Plaintiff, as per law/ required by the Defendants.
8. Copy of the order be given dasti to both the parties by way of electronic mode or physically if they so desire.
