Ld. Counsel for the complainant has opposed the bail stating that in the case diary the reasons for arrest are not recorded by the IO till date in collusion with the accused persons. This a clear case of u/s 307 IPC and there is a threat perception by the complainant by the accused as the accused is residing next door. Further, as per statement u/s 164 Cr.P.C, proper sections have not been added till date.

On being enquired from the substitute IO, he submitted that the grounds of arrest have not been recorded till date.

Without commenting on the merits of the case, it is clear that initially the FIR was registered under the sections of IPC which are bailable. Regarding the injury to the victim, section 325 IPC is invoked which against is a bailable offence. The offence u/s 354/354-A is non-bailable. There is a history of dispute between the parties.

The applicant's counsel has relied upon the judgment of Rajesh Dua Vs State 2017 (3) JCC 2011 submitting that the offences are punishable with sentence upto seven years and therefore, the applicant must be given notice u/s 41 -A Cr.P.C.

IO submits that the applicant is absconding. He further submits that he is not the investigating officer now and the new IO is on medical leave and will join in one or two days.
