U/s 420/120B IPC

30.09.2020

The undersigned is performing duty pursuant to the computer generated circular/duty Roster dated 31.08.2020 of Ld. District & Sessions Judge, West, Tis Hazari Courts, Delhi.

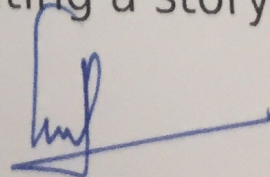

This is the application u/s 438 Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail moved on behalf of accused/applicant Krishan Kumar.

Present : Sh. P.K. Ranga, Ld. Sub. Addl. PP for State.
IO SI Sohan Lal.
Sh. Janendra Kumar, Ld Counsel for the applicant/accused Krishan Kumar.
Sh. Alok Pandey, Ld. Counsel for the complainant.

Reply to the bail application is already on record.

I have heard arguments from both the sides and perused the reply.

It is argued that applicant is innocent and law abiding citizen. It is submitted that applicant has been falsely implicated in the present FIR. It is argued that there is delay of more than 09 years in lodging the present FIR in order to harass the applicant by fabricating a story.

Applicant is apprehending his arrest in the present FIR and hence seeking anticipatory bail and is further ready to join the investigation.

Per contra, Ld. State Counsel has opposed the application stating that applicant induced the complainant to make investment in his company by promising assured returns. It is further argued that the applicant has cheated number of investors and number of FIR have been registered against the applicant. It is further submitted that matter is at the very initial stage and custodial interrogation of applicant is necessary.

I have considered rival submissions.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, serious allegations against the applicant, the fact that matter is at the stage of initial investigation and there is every likelihood that applicant may tamper with the evidence/threaten the witnesses, I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail at this stage. Application is accordingly dismissed.

Copy of this order be given dasti to Ld. Counsel for applicant.

I have heard arguments from both sides.

It is argued on behalf of applicant/accused that accused has not been done any offence pertaining to the present case as at the time of alleged time and date of incident he was in RML hospital alongwith his father as he was suffering from illness. It is further argued that brother of applicant/accused Chand has already been arrested by IO and IO wanted to falsely implicated the applicant/accused only because he is real brother of accused Chand. It is also argued that complainant in this case is also habitual offender and various FIR has been against him and alleged incident is self created scene and empty cartridge was given to IO by complainant to give weight to his concocted story and no fire arms of any type is used during the alleged offence. It is further argued that applicant/accused is law abiding citizen, hence, in the even of arrest he may be granted bail.

Per contra, bail application is strongly opposed by Ld. State Counsel, at the strength of reply filed by IO stating that in this case custodial interrogation of applicant/accused is required as weapon of offence is yet to be recovered and co-accused Vinay is yet to be arrested. It is also argued that applicant/accused is also previously involved in one case in PS Ranjeet Nagar and investigation is still on. Hence, bail application may be dismissed.

In view of the facts and circumstances of the case and the fact that custodial interrogation is required to recover the weapon of offence and co-accused Vinay is yet to be arrested coupled with the fact that offence in the present case is serious in nature, this court is not inclined to allow the present bail application. Hence, the same is dismissed.

Nothing said herein shall tantamount to have effect on the merits of the case.

Copy of this order be given dasti, as prayed.
