

FIR No.24532/2020
u/s 411 IPC
PS Punjabi Bagh
State. v. Rajesh @ Kamal

11.06.2021

Matter taken up through VC.

Present: Ld. APP for the State.
Sh. Pankaj Sharma, learned remand Advocate for accused/accused Rajesh @ Kamal

An application under section 437 of Cr.PC. for grant of bail is moved on behalf of accused/ applicant Rajesh @ Kamal.

It is submitted by learned counsel that the accused has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is further submitted that nothing incriminating has been recovered from the accused. It is further submitted that the accused is in JC since 22.10.2020. It is further submitted that the accused is ready to abide by the terms of the bail and he may be released on bail.

Learned APP for the State has opposed the bail stating that the accused is a habitual offender and may commit the offence again if released on bail.

Arguments heard. Perused the reply filed by the IO.

Considering the abovesaid submission and the fact that the accused is previously involved in various cases, I do not consider it proper to grant bail to the accused/applicant Rajesh @ Kamal at this stage. Hence, his bail application is disposed off as dismissed.

Copy of the order be given dasti.

S/v Sonu

11.06.2021

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

Sh. Pranav Kumar, Ld. Advocate for accused /applicant Sonu.

An application for grant of bail under section 437 of Cr.P.C. is moved on behalf of accused/applicant Sonu.

It is submitted by ld. Counsel for the accused that the accused is an illiterate person and was not aware about the present case, therefore, he did not appear in the court. It is further submitted that due to his non availability he was declared proclaimed offender by the Hon'ble court. It is further submitted that accused was arrested on 07.06.2021. It is further submitted that accused is having two children and wife. It is further submitted that the accused is sole earning member of his family. It is stated that the accused / applicant is ready to abide by the terms of the bail.

Bail application is opposed by Ld. APP for the State stating that the accused may flee again if released on bail.

Considering the abovesaid submissions, I do not find it proper to keep the accused behind the bars. Hence, accused Sonu is admitted to bail on furnishing bail bond in the sum of Rs.20,000/- with one surety of like amount subject to following conditions:-

1. That he shall not tamper or intimidate the witnesses.
 2. That he shall appear on each and every date of hearing.
 3. That he shall furnish his address as and when he changes the same.
- Application is accordingly disposed off.
