Considering the abovesaid submissions and the fact that recovery has been effected, accused / applicant Karan is no more required for any custodial interrogation. S/v Ravi Kant

25.06.2021

Matter taken up through VC.

Present: Ld. APP for the State.

Sh.Mayank Khurana, Ld. Counsel for applicant Ravi Kant.

An application for grant of bail is moved on behalf of accused Ravi Kant.

Arguments heard on bail application. Perused the reply of IO.

It is submitted by ld. Counsel that bail application of accused was allowed on 17.06.2021, however, he is still in JC as he is unable to furnish surety bond. It is requested by ld. Counsel that accused / applicant may be released on personal bond. Ld. Counsel has also relied upon the judgment of Hon'ble High Court titled as Ajay Verma vs. Govt. of NCT of Delhi in WP(C) No.10689/17 decided on dated 08.03.2018.

Bail application is opposed by Ld. APP for the State.

Address verification report filed by IO verifying the address stated in the application to be correct. It has been submitted on behalf of applicant that he does not have enough finances to secure surety in terms of bail order passed by this court.

In light of the directions issued by the Hon'ble High Court of Delhi in Ajay Verma Vs. Govt. of NCT of Delhi in WP(C) no.10689/2017, orders dated 15.12.2017 and 08.03.2018, an accused cannot be left languishing in jail despite an order of bail in his favour solely on ground of financial inability.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the present application, the fact that his address has been verified by the IO / SHO and that he is from a poor section of society and unable to furnish surety bond, his application for release on personal bond stands allowed subject to furnishing personal bond in sum of Rs.10,000/- to the satisfaction of the concerned jail superintendent.

Application disposed of accordingly. Copy of order be provided electronically to the ld. Advocate for accused as well as to the Jail Superintendent concerned.
