U/S 3/7 The Essential Commodities
Act, 3 Epidemic Diseases Act 1987 &
420/188 IPC
PS Mundka

12.05.2021

Present: APP is absent.
IO/SI Dharmender alongwith case file.
Accused Mohd. Danish is present.

An application for three days police custody remand has been filed by the IO. IO submits that the accused Mohd. Danish is hoarding huge amount of Pulse Oximeter at his shop "Super Optical" and taking advantage of the present COVID-19 situation by selling the Oximeter at exorbitant price of Rs. 1,000/- each. IO also submits that he needs to verify the fact whether the Oximeters are in working condition or not.

Heard. Material perused.

Brother of the accused have been informed about the arrest. MLC perused.

No bail application was filed on behalf of the accused.

No submission on behalf of the State as APP is absent.

IO was asked whether the Pulse Oximeter is covered under the Essential Commodities Act or not, the IO replied that the Oximeter is essential as per the situation as there is scarcity in the market and there is a huge demand for the product. IO submits that there is a syndicate who is working to earn unlawful money by taking advantage of the present crisis. IO further submits that he will file the relevant notification regarding the same within three days.

Keeping in view of above facts, the accused is remanded for three days police custody as there is need to interrogate the accused to make further arrest and investigation in the present matter. IO is directed to get the accused medically examined as per the law.

Accused be produced before the concerned court /
Duty MM on 15.05.2021.

Copy of this order be given Dasti to the IO as prayed.
