State vs. Ravinder @ Sardare FIR No. 162/2020 Under Section 307/452/34 IPC PS Subzi Mandi

23.06.2020.

Present:

Sh. Ghanshyam Srivastava, Ld. Addl. PP for State. Sh. Rishabh Jain, Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant.

Sh. Abid Ahmed, Ld. Counsel for complainant.

10 is absent.

Heard. Perused.

Report has been received from IO through email.

Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant submits that accused/applicant has been falsely implicated in this case. It is further submitted that co-accused namely Rajesh has been granted bail by this Court vide order dated 19.06.2020 and hence, accused/applicant is entitled to bail on the ground of parity.

On the other hand, Ld. Addl. PP for State argued that accused/applicant is a habitual offender and is a BC of area. It is further submitted that bail was granted to accused Rajesh as on 19.06.2020, complainant/victim namely Naresh was present in Court and stated that he has settled the matter with accused Rajesh. It is further submitted that apart from Naresh, there is one more victim in the present case and he has not settled the matter with the accused persons. It is further submitted that offence in question is non-compoundable one.

I have duly considered the rival submissions. I have perused the record carefully and more particularly order dated 19.06.2020 passed by this court on the bail application of accused/applicant i.e. Rajesh.

Perusal of order dated 19.06.2020 clearly shows that on 19.06.2020, complainant/victim namely Naresh was present in Court and has stated that he has no objection if bail is granted to accused Rajesh as matter has been amicably settled between them. Today, complainant/victim i.e. Naresh is not present. On being asked, Ld. Counsel for complainant/victim submits that he is not aware of whereabouts of Naresh. Perusal of record shows that apart from Naresh, his brother namely Dal Chand had also received injuries in the incident in question.

Allegations against accused/applicant are of serious nature. Investigation of the case is at initial stages and even charge-sheet has not been filed. Today, neither complainant/victim i.e.Naresh nor his brother i.e. Dal Chand (injured) have appeared in court. The offence in question is non-compoundable one. Tempering with the evidence/witnesses cannot be ruled out at this stage.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I find no merits in the present application. The same is hereby dismissed and disposed of accordingly.

Copy of order be given dasti to Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant.

23.06.2020.

Present:

Sh. Ghanshyam Srivastava, Ld. Addl. PP for State. Sh. S. Haq, Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant i.e. Mohd Israil.

Heard. Perused.

Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant submits that application in hand has been filed on behalf of accused/applicant named above for grant of interim bail on the basis of guidelines issued by Hon'ble High Court of Delhi qua COVID-19/CORONA.

Perusal of guidelines dated 18.05.2020 issued by High Powered Committee clearly shows that the cases pertaining to recovery of commercial quantity of Narcotic Drugs/Psychotropic Substances are not to be considered for grant of interim bail.

In the present case, 21 kg 'Ganja' was allegedly recovered from the possession of accused/applicant. The said quantity is commercial quantity.

In view of aforesaid facts and circumstances, I find no merits in the present application. The same is hereby dismissed and disposed of accordingly.

LA THE COM State Vs. Suraj @ Charang FIR No. 311/2019 under Section 20 and 29 NDPS Act PS Crime Branch 23.06.2020. Sh. Ghanshyam Srivastava, Ld. Addl. PP for State. Present: Sh. Sumit Sharma, Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant. SI Arvind Kumar is also present for IO. Heard. Perused. Present application has been filed on behalf of accused/applicant named above for grant of interim bail for a period of two months on the ground that grandfather of accused/applicant is seriously ill. Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant submits that grandfather of accused/applicant is virtually on death bed. Grandfather of accused/applicant wants that accused/applicant should serve him in his last days. It is further submitted that father of accused/applicant is not taking any care of his father i.e. grandfather of accused/applicant. It is further submitted that accused/applicant is not aware about the whereabouts of his father. It is further submitted that grandfather of accused/applicant is in hospital w.e.f. 15.06.2020 till date. It is further submitted that there is no other responsible male member in the family of accused/applicant to look after his grandfather. On the other hand, SI Arvind Kumar submits that father of accused/applicant is also wanted in this case and he is deliberately evading process of law. It is further submitted that process under Section 82/83 Cr.P.C. has already been issued against father of accused/applicant. It is Contd.....

State Vs. Suraj @ Charang FIR No. 311/2019 under Section 20 and 29 NDPS Act PS Crime Branch further submitted that uncle of accused/applicant is very much there to take care of his ailing father i.e. grandfather of accused/applicant.

In rebuttal, Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant submits that uncle of accused/applicant is held up in Nepal and is not in India.

I have duly considered the rival submissions. I have perused the record carefully.

As per prosecution case, 10 kg 'Charas' (commercial quantity) was allegedly recovered from the possession of accused/applicant. Perusal of medical documents annexed with application in hand shows that grandfather of accused/applicant is suffering from TB as well as Hepatitis. In the medical documents, it is nowhere mentioned that the said diseases are life threatening qua grandfather of accused/applicant. Even otherwise, the mere fact that grandfather of accused/applicant is suffering from some serious disease ipso facto does not entitle accused/applicant for interim bail, keeping in view the seriousness of allegations against him.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I find no merits in the present application. The same is hereby dismissed and disposed of accordingly.

Copy of order be given dasti to Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant.

State Vs. Ricky @ Budhram FIR No. 272/2015 under Section 302/34 IPC PS Nabi Karim

23.06.2020.

Present: Sh. Ghanshyam Srivastava, Ld. Addl. PP for State.

Sh. Sanjeev Kumar, proxy Counsel for accused/applicant.

Heard. Perused.

Ld. Counsel for accused/applicant submits that application in hand has been filed on behalf of accused/applicant named above for grant of regular bail. It is further submitted that accused/applicant is in JC since 30.05.2015. It is further submitted that all the material witnesses have already been examined and conclusion of trial is likely to take time. It is further submitted that accused/applicant has been falsely implicated in this case.

On the other hand, Ld. Addl. PP for State submits that the application in hand is without merits and the same is liable to be dismissed. It is further submitted that allegations against accused/applicant are of very serious nature. Accused/applicant is a habitual offender and previously also he was involved in as many as 18 cases and is also a previous convict in 04 cases.

I have duly considered the rival submissions. I have perused the record carefully.

Perusal of record shows that allegations against 26/2020

State Vs. Ricky @ Budhram FIR No. 272/2015 under Section 302/34 IPC PS Nabi Karim

accused/applicant are of very serious nature. Accused/applicant is a habitual offender and is also a previous convict. Possibility of tempering with the evidence/witnesses and fleeing away from the process of law cannot be ruled out. Even possibility of repeating similar offences cannot be ruled out keeping in view the previous conduct of accused/applicant.

Keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, I find no merits in the present application. The same is hereby dismissed and disposed of accordingly.
