Ld. Counsel for applicant/accused Deepak Anand.

This is the second application u/s 439 Cr.PC moved on behalf of applicant/accused Deepak Anand, seeking interim bail on the ground that matter has been settled between the parties. The settlement deed dated 11.05.2020, is annexed with the application.

Ld. Counsel for applicant submits that the present is a property dispute, consequently it is a civil dispute. He submits that co-accused i.e. wife of the applicant Preeti Anand, has already been granted interim bail. Other co-accused Rohit Anand and Payal Anand were even admitted on anticipatory bail by the court of Ld. ASJ. All the said orders are annexed with this application. Ld. Counsel further submits that matter has already been settled between the parties and out of the settlement amount the applicant had already paid Rs. 5 lacs to the complainant. Applicant is stated to be in custody since 21.09.2019.

Complainant submits that in view of the settlement reached between him and the applicant, he has no objection if the applicant is admitted on bail.

Ld. APP oppose the bail application as he submits that applicant is also booked for the offence u/s 467 IPC which prescribes the punishment for life imprisonment. He submits that applicant has defrauded not only the complainant but also 3 Banks from where he obtained loan by mortgaging the same property sold by him to the complainant. Ld. APP submits that the alleged settlement reached between the parties is only between complainant and the applicant but not with the Banks where from the applicant has obtained loan by placing forged titled documents of the property. Ld. APP also pointed out that the bail application of the applicant was recently dismissed by Ld. ASJ vide order dated 11.05.2020, wherein also he was seeking interim bail on the same grounds as mentioned in the present application and there is no change of circumstance since dismissal of earlier bail application and filing of present application.

On going through the material on record, particularly the reply filed by the IO, it is revealed that the applicant has not defrauded only the complainant with whom he states to have entered into the settlement but he has also played fraud upon 3 Banks i.e. Punjab & Sind Bank, UCO Bank, Nizamuddin and Canara Bank from where he obtained the loan by mortgaging the property after selling the same property to the complainant, thereby he has played and misused the public money. Otherwise also, there is no change of circumstance in dismissal of earlier bail application on 11.05.2020 and in filing the present bail application.

In view of all the facts and circumstances, no ground for bail is made out. Hence, the present bail application is hereby dismissed.

10 Inspector Ashok Kumar.

The present application u/s 439 Cr.PC has been filed on behalf of applicant/accused seeking regular bail. However, while initiating arguments by Ld Counsel for applicant he submits that he wants to confine his prayer only for the interim bail of the applicant as mentioned in prayer "C" of the application.

On last date of hearing, on the joint request of both the counsels, the TCR was directed to be summoned, however, today both the counsels submit that Ld. Duty MM has not taken the cognizance yet on the chargesheet as the same could not be placed before the concerned Ld. MM due to lockdown. IO is present today with the copy of chargesheet, hence, there is no need for summoning of TCR.

Ld. Counsel for applicant submits that applicant has been falsely implicated in this case and is in judicial custody since 19.01.2020. He is a practicing lawyer in Delhi. He further submits that due to the pandemic disease Covid-19 the regular hearing of the matter is going to take time as even the chargesheet was filed before Ld. Duty MM during the period of lockdown and committal of the chargesheet is going to take considerable time as the lockdown is extending fortnightly. Ld. Counsel has relied upon the order dated

FIR No. 37/20 PS: Burari

12.05.2020, passed in "Lalit Kumar Vs. State", bail application no. 3169/19, 6245/20 by Hon'ble Delhi High Court and submits that in the similar circumstances as in the present case, the Hon'ble High Court has granted the interim bail to the accused of the said case.

Ld. Counsel for complainant strongly oppose even the grant of interim bail to the applicant as he submits that there are apprehension in the mind of the family of the deceased that if applicant is admitted on bail, he may try to influence the witnesses. Ld. Counsel submits that the maid namely Annu who was working in the accused family at the relevant time is the most material witness of the prosecution and recently the said maid has informed the father of the deceased that she is receiving threats from the applicant's father & sister for not giving evidence in the present FIR against them. Ld. Counsel submits that the criminal complaint regarding the same has also been filed by the father of the deceased in the concerned Police Station on 21.05.2020. He also submits that the family of the deceased is having even the audio recording of the conversation between maid on one hand and sister & father of the deceased in which audio the maid is crying and lodging her complaint to them that how she is being harassed by the family of the accused/applicant. The complaint dated 21.05.2020 lodged by the father of the deceased regarding the threat received by the maid of the accused family is placed on record during arguments on the application.

The applicant is seeking interim bail only on the ground that there is Covid-19 situation, therefore, the matter may get prolonged. Admittedly, only the chargesheet has been filed by the IO in the court of Ld. Duty MM during the lockdown period. The case is at the very initial stages and the court cannot brush aside the apprehension of the family of the deceased which is to placed by them on record by lodging their complaint dated 21.05.20°, in the concerned Police Station regarding apprehension of tempering the evidence. The entire nation is facing with the situation of Covid-19 but the same cannot become tool in the hands of the criminals involved in the serious crime particularly when they are further alleged that they try to influence the witnesses.

In these circumstances, no ground for interim bail is ade out.

Accordingly, the present application is hereby dismissed.

Copy of this order be given dasti to the applicant.
