Shri Vikas Rohtagi, Ld Counsel for applicant- accused.

Heard. Records perused.

Anticipatory bail application has been moved on the ground that there is a delay of one year in the complaint of the minor victim and delay of two years from the first incident allegedly involving the elder sister of the minor victim. It is also submitted that the applicant – accused is suffering from 'Cerebellar Ataxia' and is seriously ill.

Father of the victim submits that his younger daughter / minor victim was in depression for a very long time and it took lot of time and efforts for her to open up. It was after such efforts that the victim disclosed the sexual assault by the applicant – accused upon her. Her elder sister also disclosed about the incident in which the applicant – accused had sexually assaulted her in the year 2018.

IO also submits that applicant – accused needs help in walking.

Section 8 of POCSO Act involving a minor victim is a grave offence. The victim being a minor is deemed to be at risk and is vulnerable.

In these facts and circumstances, the anticipatory bail application of the applicant – accused Rajesh Kumar is dismissed.

Victim and her mother submit that there is no bread earner in the family and, therefore, the applicant-accused may be granted bail.

Victim also submits that she was made to sign on some papers but she was not aware of the contents of the same or of the complaint. She has denied the allegations in the FIR and submits that applicant-accused may be granted bail.

IO has submitted that victim had got pregnant because of penetrative sexual assault upon her. A child has been born and DNA Report is awaited. It is also submitted that in her statement U/s 164 Cr.P.C., the victim has supported the allegations against the applicant-accused, i.e., her step father.

In the facts and circumstances where the victim clearly appears to be under pressure and the allegations against the applicant-accused are grave in nature, the Court is not inclined to enlarge applicant-accused on bail.

The bail application of the applicant-accused is, accordingly, dismissed.

Ld. Proxy Counsel for applicant-accused submits that has has instructions of the applicant-accused as well as the main Counsel to address arguments on the present application.

Reply of the IO is already on record.

Heard. Records perused.

Ld. Proxy Counsel for applicant-accused has argued that one of the co-accused, namely, Sonu is already on bail. Ld. Proxy Counsel for applicant-accused submits that charge-sheet has been filed and charge has yet not been framed.

Ld. Addl. PP for the State has vehemently opposed the bail application of the applicant-accused on the ground of gravity of offence.

I have considered the rival contentions.

Perusal of record shows that co-accused Sonu was granted regular bail on 08.07.2019. Thereafter, the regular bail of the applicant-accused was dismissed on 25.07.2019 after considering all the facts.

Charge in the instant case is stated to be not framed and the Complainant is still to be examined. The offence U/s 392/394/352/411/120B/34 IPC & 25/27 Arms Act is grave in nature.

State Vs. Tarun Jain @ Tushar

12.06.2020

Matter taken up in view of Covid-19 pandemic and national lockdown.

Interim Bail Application U/s 439 Cr.P.C. moved on behalf of the applicant-accused.

Present:

Shri P K Ranga, Ld. Addl. P P for the State

Ld. Counsels Shri B Khan and Shri Ankur Gupta

in person for Complainant

Shri Navneet Jain, Brother of the applicant-accused in person.

Heard. Records perused.

Ld. Counsel for the Complainant has argued that the applicant-accused has withheld the material information regarding dismissal of bail applications in Hon'ble High Court of Delhi. Ld. Counsel submits that Hon'ble High Court had directed that till effective PE was concluded, bail of the accused would not be considered. It is also submitted that in the Trial Court also, many bail applications of the applicant-accused have been dismissed.

The brother of the applicant-accused submits that two bail applications in Hon'ble High Court of Delhi were withdrawn. He also submits that the main Counsel for the applicant-accused would connect through video conferencing.

It has been informed by the staff that since this matter was received later today, therefore, link could not be shared with Ld. Counsel for the applicant-accused but the meeting ID no. and the password have been conveyed to him telephonically.

It is 1:20 pm. The staff has informed that Ld. Counsel for applicant-accused has telephonically informed that he is not able to join the meeting and there appears to be some network issue at his end and, therefore, he has requested for adjournment.

At request, now to come up for furthger consideration of the instant bail application on 20.06.2020.

Bail Application No. LD-287

12.06.2020

Matter taken up in view of Covid-19 pandemic and national lockdown.

Interim Bail Application U/s 439 Cr.P.C. moved on behalf of the applicant-accused.

Present:

Shri P K Ranga, Ld. Addl. P P for the State

Shri Pankaj Verma, Ld Counsel for applicant- accused through Cisco Webex video conferencing.

Ms. Suman Singh, Ld. Legal Counsel from DCW through Whatsapp video call on the mobile phone of Ahlmad of the Court.

Heard. Records perused including the Judicial record.

The present application has been moved on the ground that the role of the applicant-accused is minimal and has been incorporated later on by way of improvement. It is submitted that the applicant-accused has a six month child who is prone to Covid infection. Interim bail for a period of 45 days has been prayed for in this respect.

The victim or her parents did not appear despite service of notice. Ld. Legal Counsel from DCW, who was not able to connect through Cisco Webex video conferencing and has connected through Whatsapp Video call, has submitted that the victim is suffering from sore throat and cold and since she has undergone various surgeries because of the incident in question, she advised the victim to stay at home. Ld. Legal Counsel submits that the victim does not object to grant of interim bail to the applicant-accused only out of concern for the six month old infant child of the applicant-accused.

Ld. Addl. PP for the State has vehemently opposed the bail application of the applicant-accused. He has argued that examination-inchief of the victim was going on when supplementary chargesheets against applicant-accused Pooja and co-accused Bharat were filed. Charge against applicant-accused Pooja is yet to be framed.

I have considered the rival contentions and have carefully perused the Judicial record.

There is a categoric allegation against the applicant-accused that she forced the minor victim to have sexual intercourse with the accused Ram Lal @ Ganna. It has also come in the part testimony of the minor victim that accused Ram Lal @ Ganna also raped her in presence of applicant-accused who also sometimes used to keep watch outside the jhuggi while the main accused raped the minor victim. These events eventually led to forcible administering of poisonous substance to the minor victim by the main accused Ram Lal @ Ganna because of which the victim had to suffer numerous surgeries.

In such circumstances and in view of the gravity of offence, the Court is not inclined to admit the applicant-accused to interim bail.

The interim bail application of the applicant-accused is, accordingly, dismissed.

Judicial Record be returned.

Copy of the Order be given dasti to Ld. Counsel for applicant-accused, concerned Jail Superintendent as well as IO of the case.

Heard. Records perused.

The present Anticipatory bail application was listed for 15.06.2020. Ld. Counsel for the applicant – accused submits that he was not able to appear before the Court on 11.06.2020 on time as he had got stuck in traffic jam because of an Ambulance. He has requested for preponment of the case.

In the facts and circumstances as narrated, the application for preponment is allowed and the Anticipatory bail application is preponed for today.

I have heard detailed arguments on the Anticipatory bail application of the applicant - accused and have perused the record carefully.

Reply of the IO is already on record.

It has been argued by Ld. Counsel for applicant - accused that the dispute is, infact, a civil dispute and the property in question is an ancestral property. It has been argued that the applicant - accused has been falsely implicated in the instant case.

Ld. Counsel for the complainant has opposed the bail application on the ground that the applicant - accused forcibly trespassed into the property and also committed theft.

Ld. Addl. PP for the State has vehemently opposed the bail application of the applicant-accused on the ground of gravity of offence. IO has submitted that an eye witness has corroborated the version of the complainant. It is also submitted that the two co-accused were arrested but now they have been admitted to regular bail.

I have considered the rival contentions.

The offence of committing house trespass, taking illegal possession and committing theft is a grave offence. In the reply, the IO has specifically stated that custodial interrogation of the accused is required for recovery of case property and weapon of offence. The record also shows that the applicant – accused used iron rod for commission of the offence.

Such circumstances do not warrant grant of Anticipatory bail to the applicant – accused Harmeet Singh. The application for Anticipatory bail is, therefore, dismissed.

The next date of hearing i.e. 15.06.2020 stands cancelled.

While dismissing the prayer for regular bail of the applicant – accused, it was observed by Ld. Vacation Judge vide order dated 03.06.2020 that the interim bail period granted to applicant – accused shall expire on 14.06.2020.

The interim bail was granted to the applicant – accused in case FIR No. 127/19 (Bail Application No.; 542/2020) vide order dated 14.04.2020. In this order, it is specifically mentioned that interim bail period for eight weeks shall commence from the date of his actual

It appears that at the time of issuance of release warrant, release. there was some technical error because of which the applicant – accused was not released. Vide order dated 22.04.2020, it was observed by Ld.
