Vide this order I shall dispose off the present anticipatory bail application filed on behalf of applicant / accused.

The applicant / accused has been arrayed in the present case for boot legging and transport of illicit liquor. Ld. Counsel for applicant / accused has submitted that perusal of FIR would reveal that apart from the vehicle of the applicant, two other vehicles were allegedly involved in the commission of the offence, however, there is not a whisper about their role by the IO i.e. who was driving the said vehicles, who was the owner of the said vehicles etc. Ld. Counsel for applicant has further submitted that till date no notice has ever been issued by the investigating authorities to him to join the investigation. Ld. Counsel submits that applicant is always ready and willing to join the investigation. Further, Ld. Counsel for applicant has submitted that custodial interrogation of the accused is not required in the present matter. Lastly, Ld. Counsel for applicant has submitted that the State has levelled allegations that the accused has been involved previously in four criminal cases, however, according to Ld. Counsel for applicant, this is a wrong submissions of the State. It has been submitted that the applicant has already been discharged in FIR No. 0783/17, u/s 336 IPC & 25 Arms Act, P.S. Narela and further applicant has already been acquitted in case FIR No. 551/13, u/s 307 IPC, P.S. Narela vide order dated 29.05.2019. This, Ld. Counsel for applicant has remonstrated that applicant be grant anticipatory bail.

Per-contra Ld. Addl. PP for the State alongwith IO have vehemently opposed the anticipatory bail application as per law. Ld. Addl. PP for the State has submitted that the applicant is seeking an extraordinary remedy of anticipatory bail at the very incipient stage of investigation. Further, process u/s 82 Cr.P.C. has already been initiated against the applicant as he did not respond to earlier notices and was not joining the investigation. Further, Ld. Addl. PP for the State has submitted that since two other vehicles have been involved and other persons have also been involved in the present matter, custodial interrogation is required to ascertain their role. Further, it has been submitted that applicant was previously involved in a commission of other offences.

Submissions heard.

A perusal of the record and reply of the IO reveals that the applicant / accused was involved in commission of 4 offences. It is correct that in two of the cases, the applicant has either been acquitted or discharged, however, the fact of the matter remains that FIR No. 374/12, P.S. Narela had been lodged against the accused, albeit in the year 2012, for the commission of the very same offence for which he has been arraigned today. Further, this Court is inclined to concur with the submissions of Ld. Addl. PP for the State that to ascertain the role of other co-accused persons and to identify them, custodial interrogation is required. Further, the factum of the applicant evading the process of the Court, pursuant to which process u/s 82 Cr.P.C. has been issued against the applicant / accused, is a conduct which cannot be overlooked by the Court.

Under these circumstances, no ground for anticipatory bail is made out. Accordingly, the present anticipatory bail application stands dismissed.
